

PAINTED DESERT

Lanning Gallery in Sedona presents "Johnathan Harris: The Sum of Color," which opens with a reception for the artist from 5 to 8 p.m. April 2 and continues on display through April 11. Known for his use of unrestrained color, Harris captures realism, then departs just enough to convey the emotions the scene evoked in him. "Landscapes speak loudly to me, and I set out to interpret and capture on canvas the sensations and revelations I experience when I am in the midst of nature," he says. Harris paints dark borders around lighter forms to further impact the light and color in his paintings. Pictured is "Desert Day," an 18" high x 24" wide acrylic on canvas.
